VOICE OF THE EAGLE

KRHS, the Voice of the Eagle, is undoubtedly the most unusual idea to be put into effect this year.

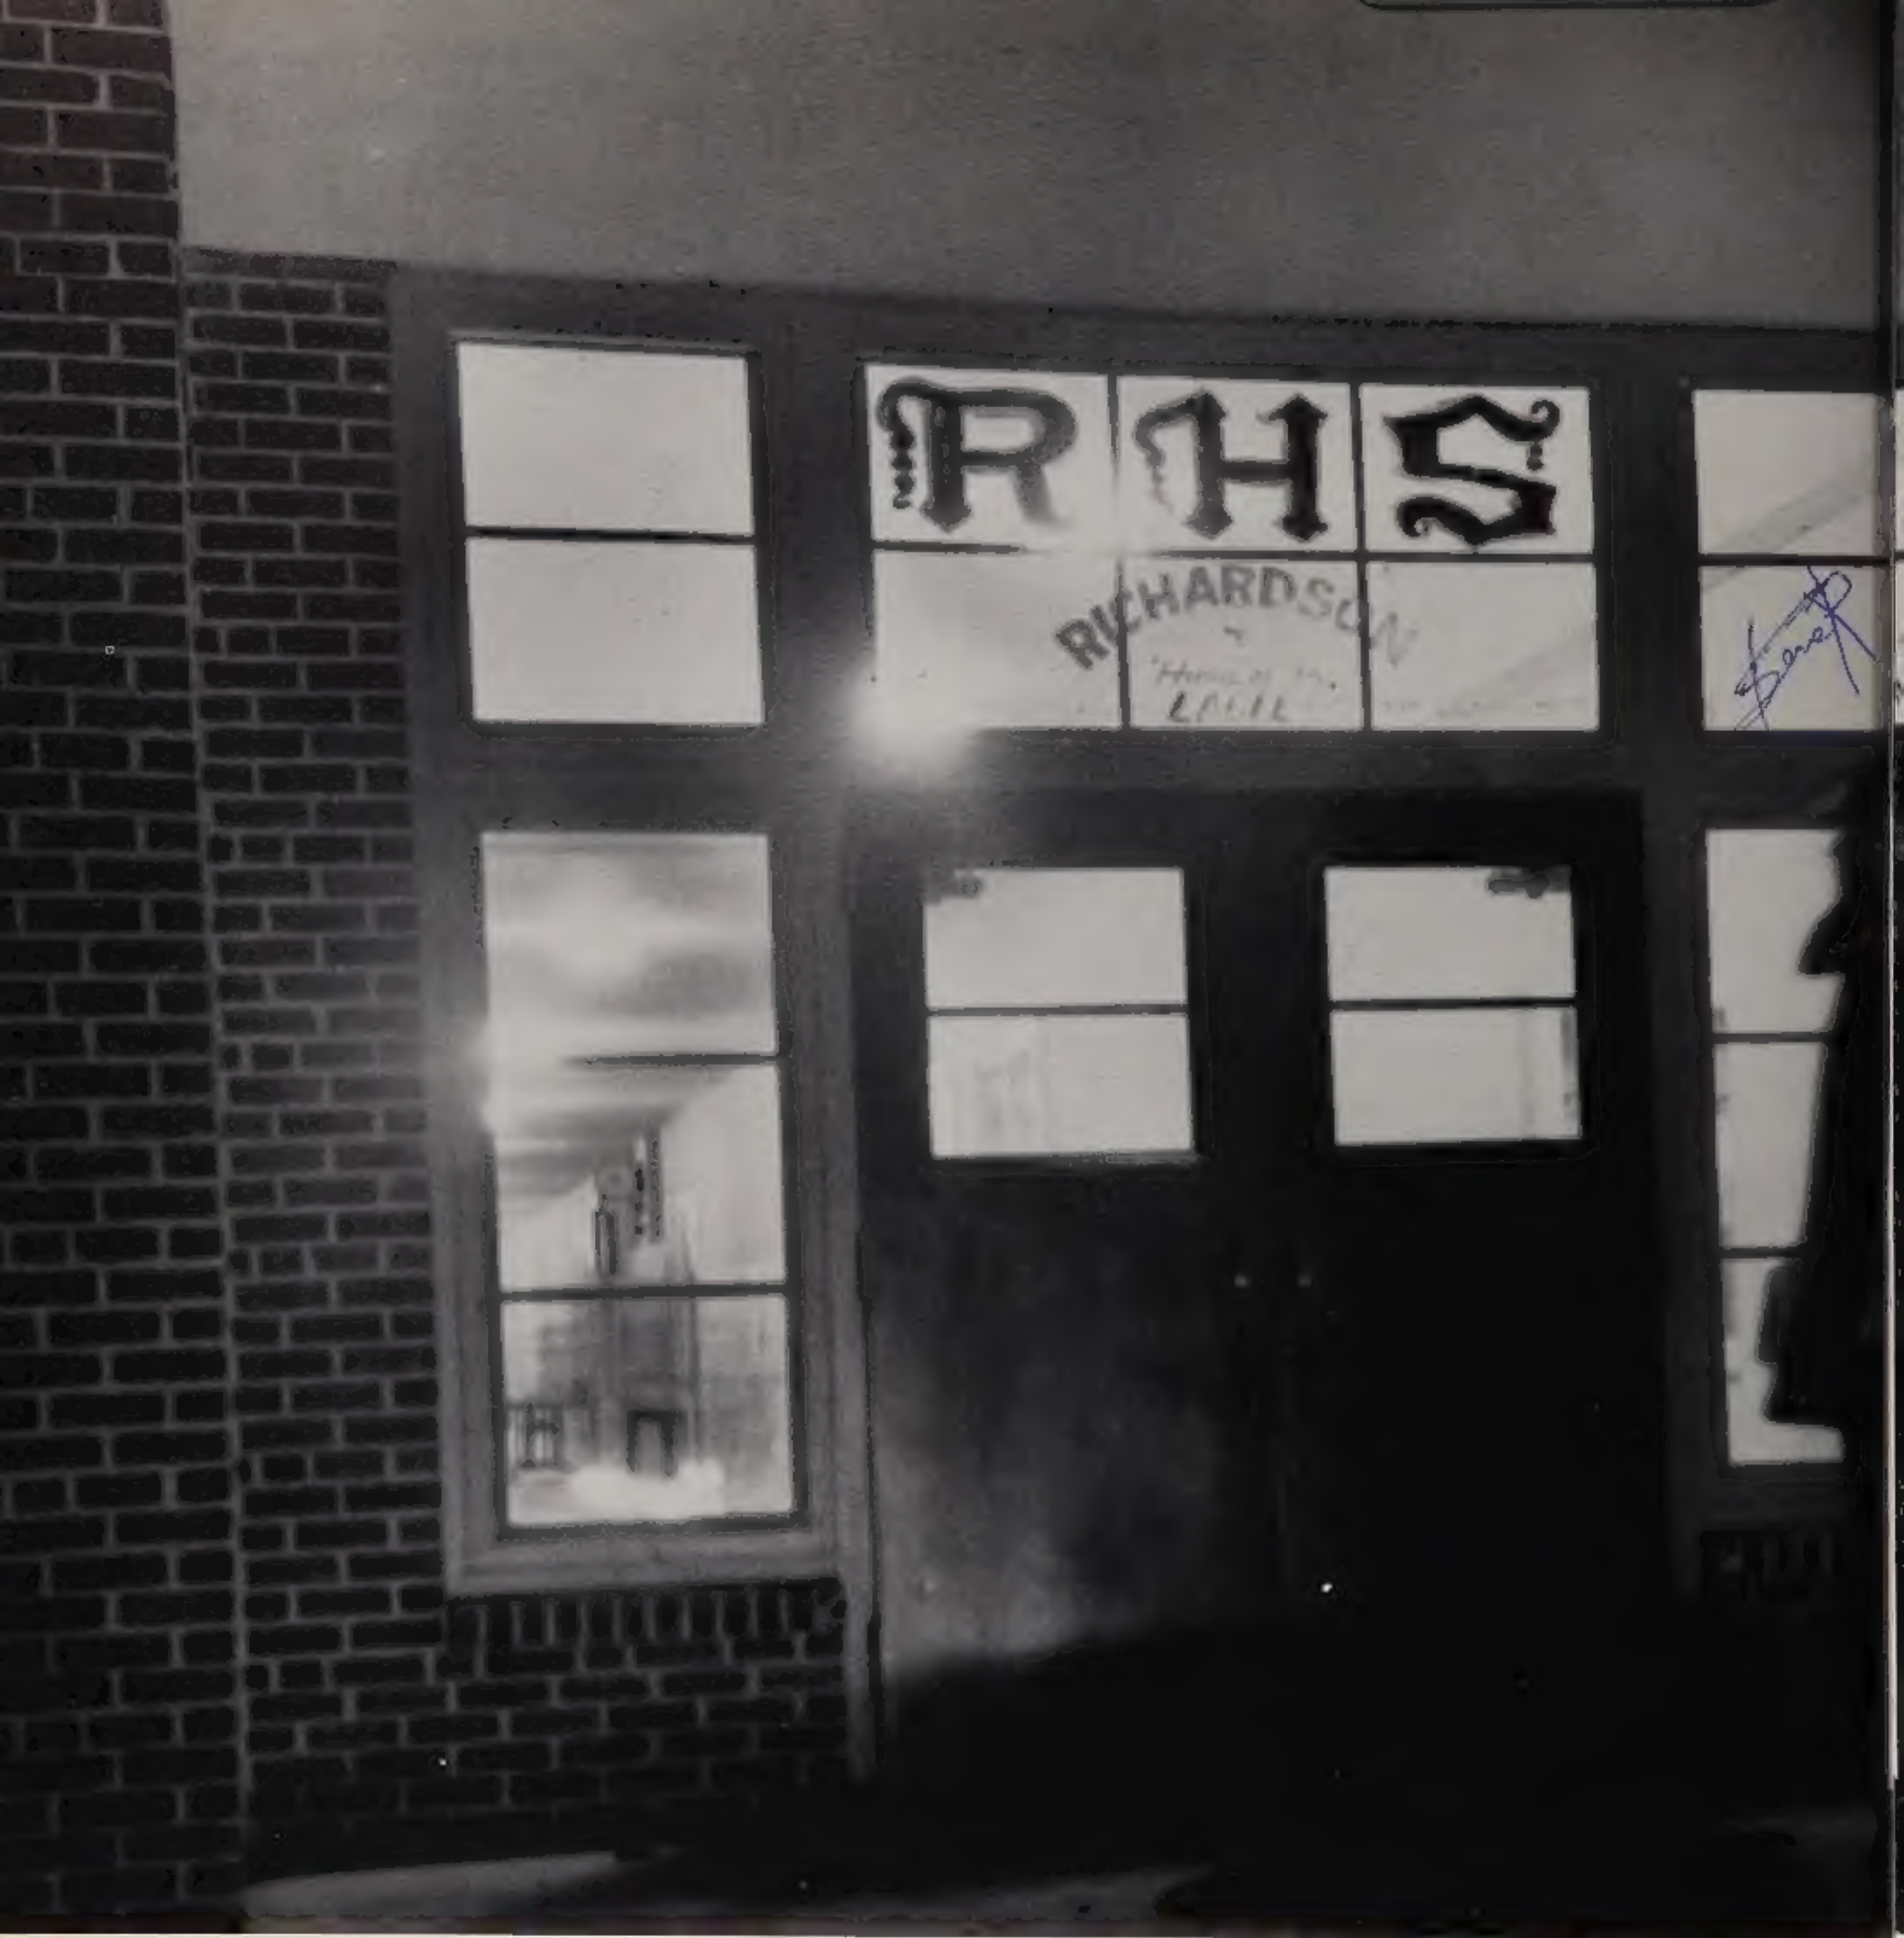

Broadcasting news and enthusiasm, KRHS has kept students informed, as well as entertained. The word "Eagle" has become worn, but meaningful. Follow the antics of the Eagle through "This is RHS," "Eagle-ites," "Favorites," "Athletics," "Organizations," and "Advertisements."

MR. NORMAN L. WHITE

New at R.H.S. is Mr. Norman White, band director. He organized the Stage Band who performed for the students and P.T.A. For relaxation Mr. White fishes and works with wood. He graduated from Northeastern State in Oklahoma with a B.A. and earned his Master of Education degree at East Texas State College.

Despite threatening rain, the "band plays on," at Music Day at the State Fair.

Bobbie Jean Coreil relays the message to Patti Dever as Patti in turn tells Ralph Faulkner exactly what to say, while Doug Stotts and Snickering Jim Bob Walker listen to the amazing Senior conversation

The Senior officers for the graduating class of 1959 have not only led their class as an executive body, but in other fields as well. Ralph Faulkner, President, aided the Richardson fans in boosting their favorite sports by serving as R.H.S.'s first boy cheerleader and was also elected boy class favorite in his Senior year. Larry Barnett, Tri-Captain of the Eagle Football team, also led the football homecoming by escorting the Football Sweetheart onto the field. He is our class Vice President and was voted Mr. Personality by the top three grades. Bobbie Jean Coreil, class Secretary, was so friendly and helpful to all that she received the honor of being Miss Personality during her Senior year. Class Treasurer, Marjorie Putnam, has gone to her Alma Mater for all twelve years. During the past three years, she has had the job of Drum Major of the famous Golden Eagle Band.

FAVORITES

FAVORITES

School favorites represent the students' ideal of best all-round, beauty, personality, and school spirit. Nominations for these honors came from the high school students and were finally chosen from run-offs of those five candidates receiving the most votes. Individual class favorites symbolize the composite of all personalities in each grade. Portraits for the Favorite Division were made by Mr. Fred Conger, winner of eight distinguished awards for 1957-1958.

ATHLETICS

Athletics are not merely football's first touchdown, basketball's first win, track's new records, and baseball's first homerun, but the excitement of sportsmanlike competition supported by cheering fans. Courses shape the mind while sports help to mold character.

Eagles Third in District

The outcome of the 1958 season did not tell the whole story. The Eagles had a better season than most sportswriters had predicted, but the players themselves believed that with a little more luck the final season record would have been better.

Our first game against Duncanville was one everyone enjoyed, excluding Duncanville, and showed that the Eagles were going to have a good year. The next week Carrollton downed the Eagles with a fifty-six yard touchdown pass which enabled them to leave the field with a six to zero score. At Lancaster, we turned the score around to read six to zero (Richardson), in a mud-fought battle. Then Grapevine came to town ranking eighth in the state and the Eagles led until the last quarter when the Mustangs came up to gain a tie. Kimball fell victim to the Eagles the following week by a score of twenty-seven to zero.

With a week's rest, the Eagles opened District play with a fourteen to twelve win over Commerce. Then we went on the road to Whitesboro to win by a score of thirty-four to eight. At home, the Plano Wildcats gave the hometown crowd a real scare, leading at the half by a score of six to zero, only to see it fall to a forty-eight to twelve victory for Richardson. Then came Bonham, who humbled the Eagles with its worst defeat of the year, forty-seven to zero. The Eagles then watched it rain the next Friday and went to Lewisville where only a last minute break handed the Farmers the win; Farmers 18—Richardson 13.

Eagles Shut Out Panthers 34-0

Richardson's Eagles, under the able direction of new head coach Bill Atkins, turned loose all of its fury on the Duncanville Panthers. Before the game, fans were wondering about Don Philips, the unheralded quarterback who was to step into the shoes of one of Richardson's finest quarterbacks, Joe Deering. At the game's close there was no doubt that he could do the job. Philips had connected with three touchdown passes and was the big reason for setting up the other two.

Other Eagles who proved their mettle, this night were Bill Mullenweg, a sophomore, who kept the Panther backs bottled up all night; Ronnie Rutledge who caught a Philips pass for a touchdown; and Jim Bob Walker, Mike Sweeney, and Thomas Finley, for holding down the line; and Terry Starling who caught three touchdown passes and ran a fourth to start a fine season.

Carrollton Squeezes Past Eagles 6-0

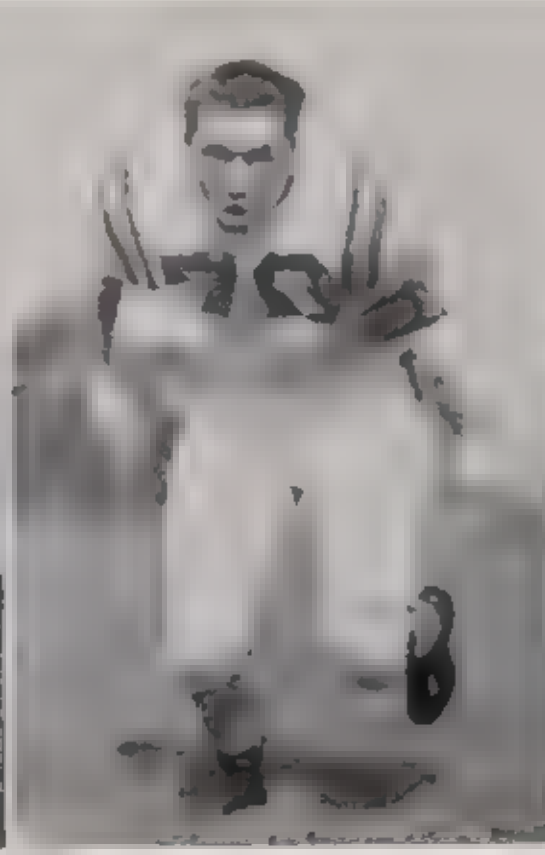

Carrollton's Lions, taking advantage of a seven man line in the middle of the field, completed a 56-yard run and pass play late in the game to squeeze past the Eagles six to zero. Richardson was inside the Lion twenty-yard line four times and once down to the Lion seven, but lacked the scoring punch because of either a penalty, a fumble, or intercepted pass. The Eagles' passing attack was the big weakness as they netted a no yards gained by passing. The Eagles still gained more yardage than the Lions by picking up one hundred ninety yards rushing to the Lions' combined total of one hundred seventy-seven yards passing and rushing.

Grapevine Ties Eagles 18-18

Grapevine Mustangs rallied late in the game to tie the Eagles eighteen to eighteen. Daryll Hawkins and Johnny Bowen teamed up for Grapevine to score three touchdowns and pick up the largest part of their one hundred and fifty yards of rushing.

For the Eagles, Sweeney, Davis, and Rutledge scored the points. Sweeney picked off a flat pass and raced fifty-four yards for the touchdown. Then Davis, after a drive starting from the Grapevine thirty-nine, picked up the touchdown on a slashing nine-yard end run. In the third quarter it was Rutledge's turn as he hurdled the last two yards for the score.

After three quarters of battering football, the Eagles, tired and weary, gave way to the rested Mustangs and let the victory slip away. After the Mustangs' final tally, Jim Bob Walker and Pat Keith brought down the Mustang fullback. Daryl Hawkins, to make the game a tie.

Eagle "B" Has Fine Season

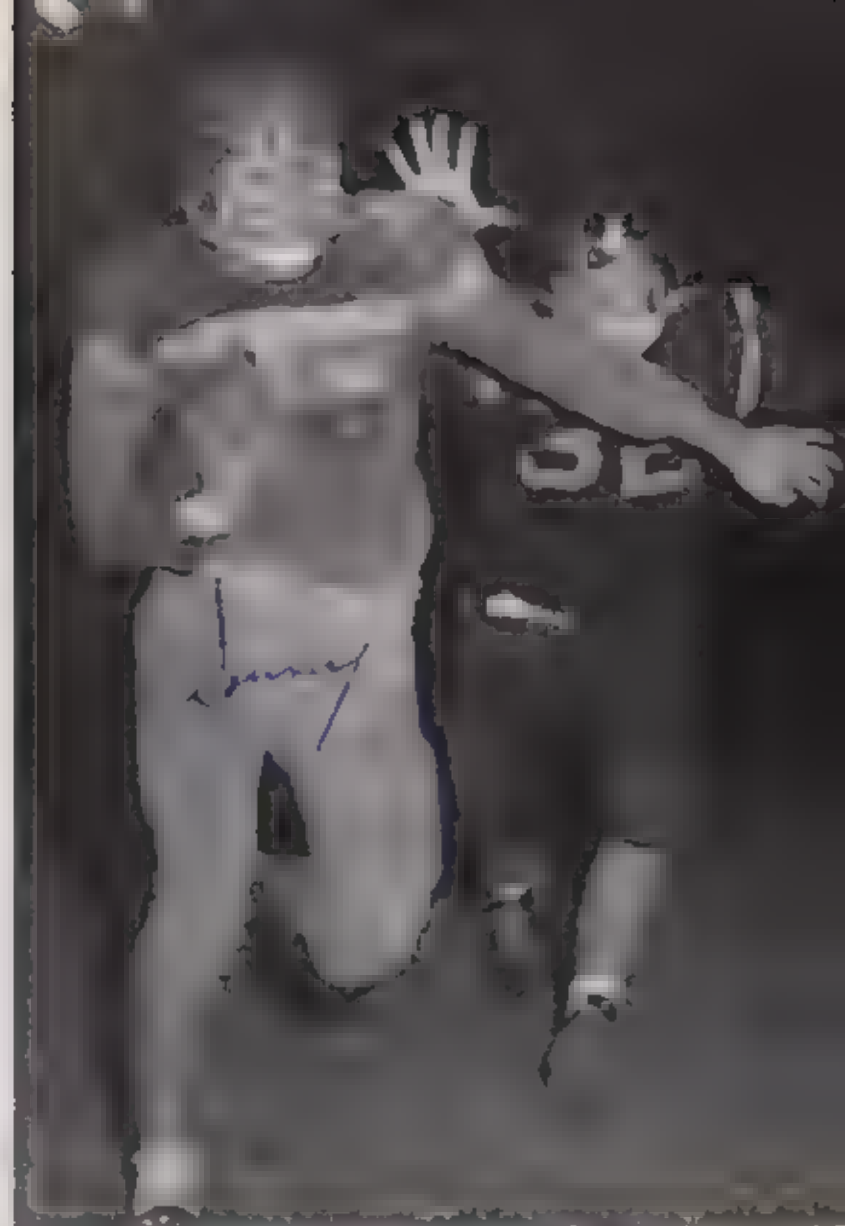

The Eagle "B" team had a fine season scoring 258 points to the opponents' 98. They beat other "B" teams in higher classifications than Richardson, such as triple "A" Mesquite, McKinney, and four "A" Garland and Jesuit four "A."

Scoring leaders were Tom Hartin with 82 points, Larry Andres with 56, Sonny Henigan with 41, and James Caldwell with 36. The backs, Larry Andres provided the power up the middle; Tom Hartin, the speed and broken field running, and Sonny Henigan, the fine passing and ball handling, to operate a multiple offense.

The junior Eagles used a multiple offense consisting of split-T, spread, single wing, Notre Dame box, and wing-T formations. This kept the opponents always on the alert and sometimes confused. The fine coaching of Mac McClearin and Randall Herman was a major reason for the season record of 8 wins and 2 losses.

As Their Sweetheart

Identity of the 1958 Football Sweetheart was the secret held by head coach Bill Atkins and the Eagle team until September 26, when their choice was revealed at the Grapevine pep rally. Students watched anxiously as the tri-captains, Larry Barnett, Jim Bob Walker, Alan Childre and Brooks Durham led the unsuspecting girls to the stage. "Oh's" came from the audience as the boys picked Marjorie Putnam, Martha Nelson, Mary Payne and, finally, the Queen, Jan Payne.

Each player had nominated three girls for the honor. The one with the most votes was Sweetheart with the next three girls with highest votes named attendants.

Though originally scheduled for the Kimball game a week earlier, rain postponed Homecoming ceremonies until the Commerce game, October 17.

Attendants' pastel dresses of turquoise, yellow, and pink complemented the Queen's colors of midnight blue over white satin. A ride around the field gave the capacity crowd a glimpse of the Queen and court. Then, as the band played "Girl of My Dreams" and the Eaglettes formed a heart, the Queen and attendants met their escorts on the field. Jan Payne received the traditional long stemmed roses and kiss from Larry Barnett.

Escorts presented the other girls with chrysanthemum corsages. The Queen and her court viewed the rest of the game from the sideline bench just off the field.

Attendants Marjorie Putnam, Martha Nelson, Mary Payne with Queen Jan Payne take 50-yard line view of the Commerce game after crowning ceremony.

Eagles 12-AA Basketball

Richardson's Eagles, although not district champions, enjoyed a very good season. Richardson got off to a good start by winning their own tournament, the Richardson Invitational. In winning this tournament, the Eagles defeated the Hillcrest Reserves 42 to 39, Kimball 61 to 43, and Duncanville 54 to 49.

After a brief period, the Eagles journeyed to McKinney to win another trophy by downing McKinney 54 to 40, Farmersville 62 to 42, and Sherman 60 to 57. Terry Houston, Glen Blackwood, and Mike Sweeney were selected to the all-tournament team.

With two tournament wins under their belt, the Eagles entered the Cotton Bowl Invitational Tournament, sponsored by the Dr Pepper Company. In this tournament the Eagles met Lady Luck for the other team as they fell victim to North Dallas and Slidell.

Warming up with Carrollton, the Eagles downed the Warriors from Bonham in the district opener 71 to 55. At Plano, the Eagles again came out on top 47 to 32. After Plano, came Commerce, only to fall victim to the Eagles, 55 to 37. On the road again, the Eagles met defeat at the hands of the Whitesboro Bearcats 65 to 56. Back home, the Eagles, without the injured Terry Houston, squeaked by Lewisville, 43 to 41, to end the first half of district play.

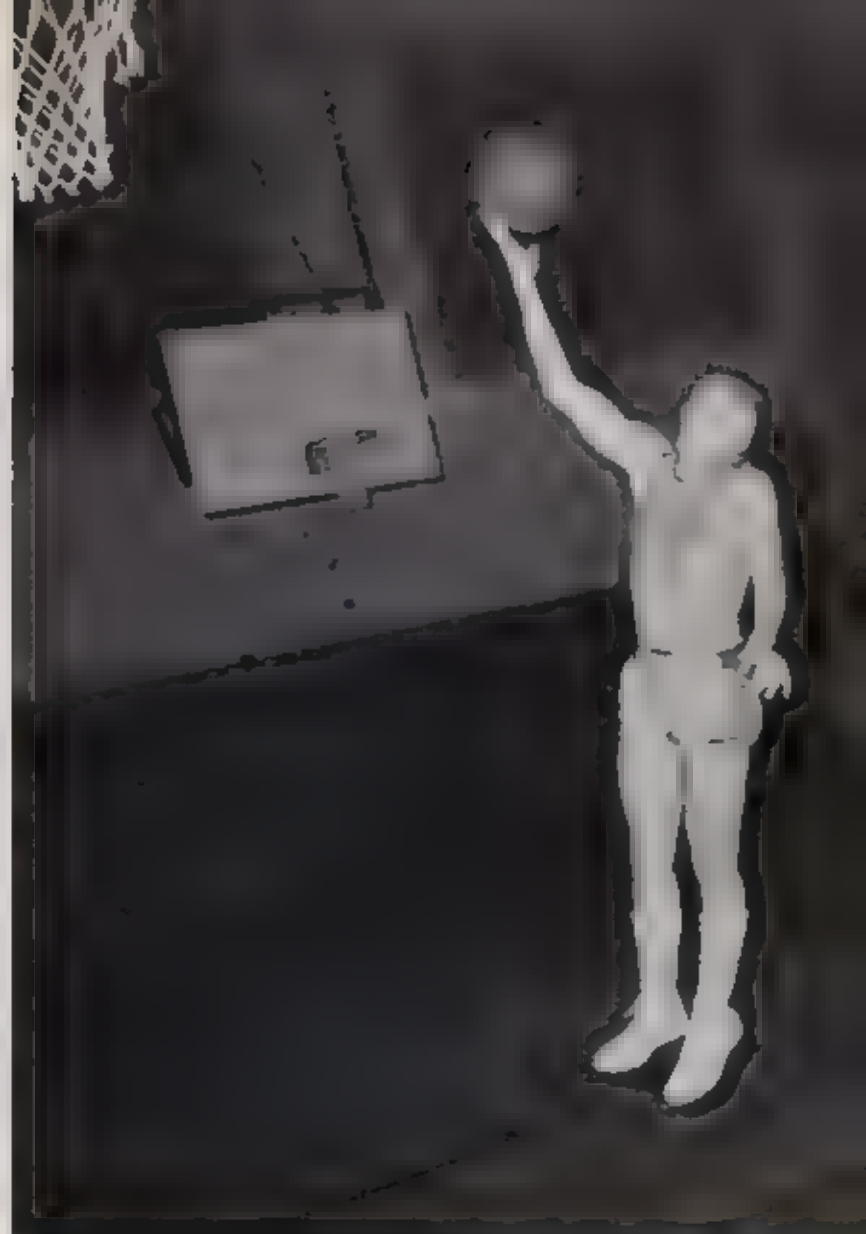

Second half of play was full of ill luck for the Eagles. At Bonham, in a cramped gym, we met a very tough zone defense and fell victim to Bonham, 65 to 39. At home again the Eagles downed Plano 58 to 38. At Commerce, the Eagles lost all hope of winning the district crown by letting Commerce slip up on them by failing, Commerce 46, Richardson 3. Then came Whitesboro to be overcome by the Eagles, 54 to 48, to thrill the home fans. To finish the season, the Eagles journeyed to Lewisville. Coach Herman let the seniors finish the game and the season by downing the Farmers 67 to 55.

The Eagles wound up the season with a record of 19 wins and 7 losses. The Eagles, although not district champions, made a very good showing.

ORGANIZATIO

ORGANIZATIONS

Twenty-three senior high and thirteen junior high clubs and organizations stimulate interest in various fields and instruct while indirectly giving leadership experience. Spirit clubs build up enthusiasm and service and religious clubs perform school and community projects. Directly related to courses, there are organizations for those who wish to extend their knowledge. The backbone of all activities is student government. Recap this year's extracurricular projects.

Student Council

Student Council officers Bobbie Jean Coriel, Historian; Pattie Dever, Treasurer; and Martha Nelson, Secretary, look to President Alan Childre for the answer to their question, but Vice-President Marshall Gant seems to have ideas of his own.

Main purposes of the Richardson Senior High Student Council are to promote the general welfare of the school and the student body, to acquire experience and efficiency in the practice of democracy, to encourage high standards of character, leadership, scholarship, and school spirit, to develop student responsibility, initiative, and leadership, and to provide a maximum of opportunity for student participation in student affairs.

The Student Council consists of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, historian, the president of each class, and a representative from each homeroom of grades ten, eleven, and twelve.

Requirements for being a homeroom representative are that the student must have a grade average of seventy-five with no grade below seventy and a citizenship average of eighty-five. To be an officer the student must have a grade average of eighty and a citizenship average of eighty-eight or above.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mann sponsors the Richardson Senior High Student Council.

National Honor Society

Requirements for membership in the National Honor Society are scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Although scholarship is the first requirement, it is not the sole basis for choosing the members. Not more than ten percent of each class may be members of the Honor Society. Selection of members is made by the faculty.

The object of the chapter is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students of Richardson Senior High School.

Accomplishments of the Honor Society this year were highlighted by the installation of a chapter at Commerce High School, Commerce, Texas, on December 3, 1958, by Richardson senior members and the initiation of new members into the Richardson chapter on January 22, 1959.

Sponsors of the club are Miss Julia Darnall and Mrs. Madge Barnett.

National Junior Honor Society

Helping in the orientation of new students is a main project of the National Junior Honor Society. The members do this in an informal way by helping any student whom they see is having difficulty. The Society also helps at open house by directing visitors to the various rooms. They also present one assembly program a year. To encourage unity and fellowship among the members, one party a semester is given. The members also act as babysitters during P.T.A.

The activities of the Honor Society illustrate the purpose of the club which is to further interest in the principles of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, service, and character.

Membership selection for the National Honor Society is made by the faculty from students in grades seven, eight, and nine, outstanding in the principles stated in the purpose.

Mrs. Lucy Ann Gant sponsors the club.

Learning the value of service was the main purpose of the Junior Red Cross Councils at R.H.S. The officers and sponsors of both councils helped to carry out this purpose. Officers in the senior high council were Todd Morriss, President; Patsy Smirl, Vice-President; Virda Zachary, Secretary-Treasurer; and the Sponsor was Mrs. Louise Dooley. In the junior high, officers included Judy Jones, President; Sherry Graham, Vice-President; Nancy Smith, Secretary-Treasurer; and Lou Ann Carrington, Reporter. Their Sponsor was Mrs. Billy Jean Smith.

In November both councils presented assemblies illustrating the services of J.R.C. Together the councils sponsored the first Sock Hop in the gym to raise their enrollment fee.

This year's senior high activities have been varied. Eight Richardson girls serve twice a month as Dietary Aides at St. Paul's Hospital. The council sponsored a variety show at the veteran's hospital. The homemaking classes decorated one hundred Christmas stockings, and the music and art departments participated in International programs in the spring.

The junior high council was also active. They made fifty Christmas place-mats, Easter articles for the hospitals, and favors for four parties in the Dallas Day Nurseries.

Early in the fall of 1958, the Booster Club of Richardson High School was organized. The club sponsors are Miss L. Jean Higginbotham and Mr. Abe Spangler.

The purpose of the Booster Club is to promote better school spirit among Richardson High School students. Qualifications for membership are that each member must cooperate with club officers and school officials; sit in the Booster Club section at pep rallies and ball games; and wear the same general uniform dress at the football games.

Activities of the club are planned to fulfill the purpose and to carry out the membership requirements. The members sit together at pep rallies and cheer for the players, form a victory lane on the field before the start of each football game, and take part in organized yells during the game. A future activity is to have an organized card section.

The officers of the club are Kaye Russell, President; Jody Allen, Vice-President; Vhilma Crockett, Secretary and Treasurer; and Sandy Johnson, Reporter.

Ten competitive teams were in this division of G.R.A. They were the Blobs, Bombshells, Feminine Nine, Jumping Jives, Nameless Nine, Scorpions, Tornados, Vikings, Black Angels, and the Vampires. These girls won points during each game for attendance and participation, and acting as captains, referees and scorekeepers. Awards were given for points earned. KRHS, one of the Student Council's School Spirit Committee projects, was set up to enliven public address announcements. Operating as a miniature radio station, patterned after popular KBOX, KLIF, and KIXL, spot news of school events was brought to the students each day at third period by the Speech department.

Eagle Central (under the direction of Steve Robertson) is shown in action, using the attendance office as a studio, in the end sheet of this book.

Providing an appropriate time for science students to use scientific equipment and learn its use is the main purpose of the Bio-Sci Club. The club is sponsored by Mr. Darwin Edge and membership is open to anyone interested in science.

The equipping of a thirty gallon aquarium was the first project of the year. The club members supplied the aquarium with several types of fish, plants, fresh gravel, and decorative petrified rocks. Reflector lights, an aerator, and a filter were also installed in the tank. An advantage which the club members obtained from the aquarium was an opportunity for experimentation with tropical fish and plants.

Other projects were a display containing all types of specimens and experimentation in bacteriology. The display, planned and built by the students, allowed the members to further study animal life. The experimentation in bacteriology gave the students an opportunity to study the behavior of microscopic plant life.

Mr. Clark Dumas organized the Chem-Phy Club in 1953, beginning with twenty members. The club has three main purposes: 1. To promote interest in science; 2. To work toward a better understanding of science; 3. To seek affiliation with junior state and national scientific societies.

All projects were conducted with the purposes of the club in mind. Main projects of the club were the building of a rocket for display at a science fair and the building of a model Van de Graaff generator. These projects gave the students actual experience in applied science.

Membership is limited to students who have an average of at least ninety in chemistry or physics and a citizenship grade of ninety or above. The capacity membership is thirty students. Selection is made from those having the highest average among the eligible students.

Latin Club

Since the organization of the Latin Club last year, the primary aims have been to help create interest in the subject and to make use of the Latin derivatives by English comparison.

The Latin Club also promotes the social betterment of its members by an annual Latin banquet, and by Latin variations of English and American games played at the club meetings.

Members of the Latin Club are as follows, row 1 Judith Robbins, Jo Ellen Altman, Treasurer; Judy Odum, Carole Clanton, Elizabeth Carr, Katy Lou Franklin, Ginger Moore, Secretary; Debbie Deering, Suzanne Moore. Row 2: Bill Buxton, J. Last fall the Spanish Club, under the direction of Mrs. Marv Helen Cardwell, became a member of the Pan-American Student Forum. The P.A.S.F. is dedicated to promoting knowledge of Spanish and Pan-American good will. Richardson forum meetings are principally conducted in Spanish. Acquiring Spanish pen pals has been an interesting activity. In club meetings Spanish bingo is often played and speeches are made in that language. A highlight of 1959 club activities is the P.A.S.F. April meeting in Austin.

Members of the Photo Club, sponsored by Mr. Taylor, study not only taking better photographs, but also developing and printing of pictures. Several field trips have given experience in photography.

Their meetings give the "Camera bugs" an opportunity to examine each other's methods and prints.

Another first at Richardson this year was the organization of Playhouse R.H.S., the senior high dramatics club. This club started off quite industriously, by producing, on February 27, a Broadway hit, Arsenic and Old Lace. Certainly, as a result of this play, the club stimulated a great amount of dramatic interest and activity.

The Junior High Drama Club, although it is still a young club, ranks high among the junior high students. The picture below is of the many who tried out for membership in the club, which is its most rigid qualification.

Debate Club

Students interested in Interscholastic League debates in the spring formed the Debate Club, sponsored by Mrs. Martin. Study material furnished by the league and mock debates helped the members to increase their debating skills. No officers were elected because the club decided they could work together without them.

Senior Hi-Li

Operating on almost the same scale, the Senior and Junior Hi-Li Clubs, sponsored by Mrs. Nicholson, Librarian, help their members to better understand library procedures and techniques. Keeping the bulletin boards up to date by working out different displays in order to help popularize reading among all students, is one of many duties done by the Senior Hi-Li organization. The Junior Hi-Li Club has stressed most the orientation of library techniques by practice, and its members give reports to various classes about new books in the library. Preparing loose leaf notebooks containing information about lives of authors, filing Library Cards, and arranging books neatly on the shelves are the jobs for which both clubs are responsible.

To make students more aware of the values of spiritual thinking is the purpose of the Religious Council. This council is made up of a representative of every church in our school district plus Mrs. Lois Johnson, the sponsor.

The Council planned and carried out many projects this year. Among these were the saying of grace at all three lunch periods and a devotion each Monday morning. Some special projects included a panel of ministers for an assembly, Thanksgiving and Christmas programs over the public address system, and an early morning Easter service for all the students.

Richardson Golden Eagle Band

1958 marked the Golden Eagle Band's tenth anniversary. This year the band performed before a national audience. Since June 1, the organization played before 11,000 Rotarians at their international convention; patrons of the State Fair of Texas and 75,000 Cotton Bowl fans on January 1, 1959 - plus a nation-wide TV audience.

Now under the direction of Norman L. White, the Golden Eagle Band is progressing into a precision marching unit on the football field - as well as a proficient concert organization. In the Dallas Area Band this year, for the second time, one out of four musicians are from Richardson. RHS now has a larger percentage of its band alumni in SMU's Mustang Band than does any other high school in the nation.

Wearing purple and white uniforms with high-top satin hats, the Richardson Eaglettes perform at every football half-time. Working with the Eagle band, which serves as a musical aid, the Eaglettes are also the main spirit boosters of the football games and season.

In order to be an Eaglette, a senior high girl must possess satisfactory academic qualifications, along with a sense of rhythm and co-ordination.

The drill team, members, cheerleaders, and majorettes work together in putting on pep rallies, encouraging school spirit and entertaining Eagle fans.

MRS. SARA FICKERTT
Sponsor

Cheerleaders for this year are Charlotte Morgan, Pat Crockett, Carolyn Buxton, Ralph Faulkner, Jan Payne, Head Cheerleader; Karen Gaston, and Carolyn Deuback.

Each spring, after practicing for weeks and learning different yells, the cheerleaders are chosen by impartial judges from out of town. Then, as the rest of the student body take it easy during their summer vacation, the lucky chosen ones struggle away at sore muscles and sunburns while attending S.M.U.'s cheerleading session. This year was certainly no exception; even head cheerleader, Jan Payne, helped as an instructor.

Giving pep rallies, painting windows, displaying posters, and anxiously waiting for games, the cheerleaders were backing the teams and leading Eagle fans.

Eagle

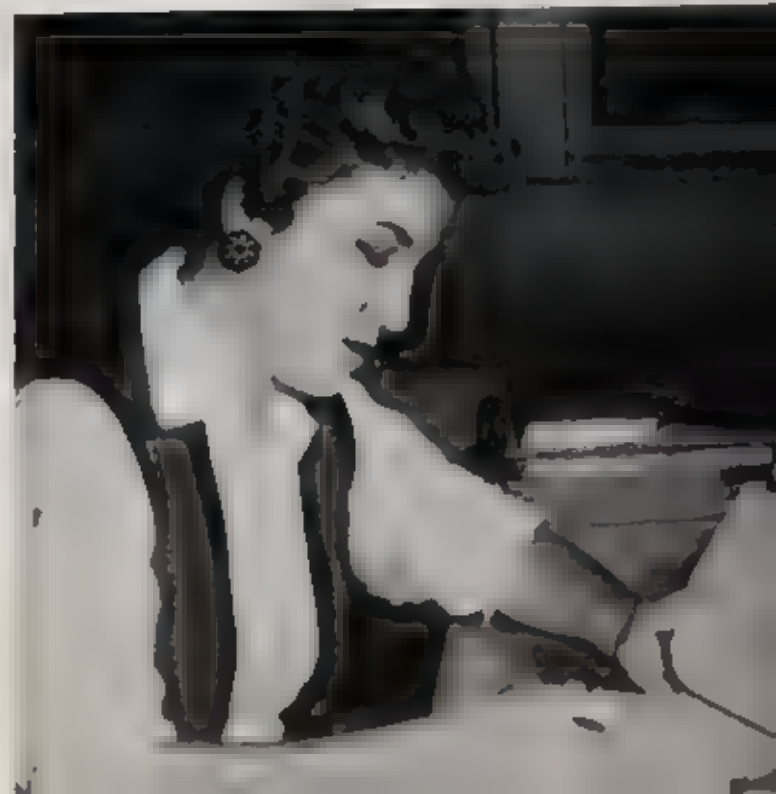

Chosen from applications submitted last spring, the seventeen members of the annual staff produced the sixteenth volume of the EAGLE. The greatest asset to the 1959 staff was the fact that it met together every day at third period to give the book a more co-ordinated appearance. The staff members received no credit for their work but the finished product.

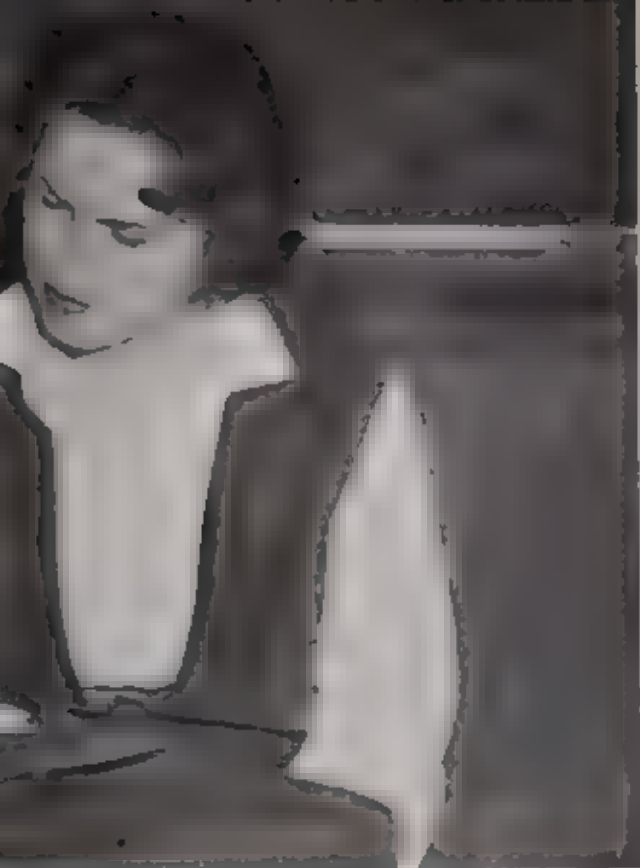

Long before subscriptions were sold in October, the EAGLE was in the planning stages. With the aid of the Taylor Publishing Company representative, the staff developed a theme and selected the paper, type style, and cover design.

Before page assignments were made, the staff members quickly learned the elements of cropping pictures and layout. Literary editor Marilyn Hilsen and Karen Fickertt compiled the

Talon

Nineteen reporters, an average of forty stories and a great deal of patience were the ingredients for the bi-weekly TALON, published by the journalism class. Papers of previous years had been mimeographed but 1958 marked the beginning of the newspaper style. Sixteen issues covered the events from the first day of school to graduation in May. The four page editions carried original features, editorials, columns, and news

1959 Eagle Supplement

The last bell rang of the 1958-1959 school year and swept away all thoughts of books, exams, and six periods a day, five days a week. Three months of fun had just begun and when they end, everyone reappears at RHS a bit browner from the sun, a classification higher, and anxious to get back in the groove. While there is still time, relive the dizzy whirl of student activities climaxed by graduation.

Career Day

Mr. Vernon Davis, Law

Career Day held at RHS gave each student a taste of the world of business with its rewards and problems. Guest speakers from more than thirty fields gave interested students a glimpse of the job opportunities ranging from military service to secretarial work.

RHS Springtime Brings

Posters plastered in every imaginable place herald the approaching Student Council election. After the campaigns, speeches and fast vote-counting, Stewart Correll was elected president of next year's council. Mary Ann Herber, David Kinder, J. Franklin, and Tim Roark will assume posts of vice-president, secretary, treasurer and historian for the '59-'60 year.

NEW CHEERLEADERS Betty Kimborough, Judy Perryman, Carolyn Buxton, John Roosa, Karen Gaston, Carolyn Dueback, and Pat Crockett relax for just a minute after the exciting moments of their election.

After a strenuous production of "Arsenic and Old Lace," Playhouse RHS members treated themselves to an Awards Banquet late in the spring. Bev Reardon and Stan Rice were voted Best Actress and Actor by the group. Title of Most Outstanding Senior went to Jan Payne and Judy Brown was chosen as the best production manager.

ROAD-E-O winner Steve Robertson demonstrates his ability to maneuver a car without denting all the fenders. Copping second and third place honors were Larry Barnett and Allen McClure.

More Winners, Outstanding Students

Senior division artists Janice Taylor and Tana Bullard show the "be kind to animals" posters that won them third and second place honors.

RHS entries in Shorthand were Carole Clanton, who won third place; Patsy Jackson, and Lana Allen.

First place in Number Sense was won by Roy King, second

Richardson Eagle Baseball team went through the 1959 schedule with only one blemish to become Regional Champions for the second straight year. In doing so, Eagle pitcher Glen Blackwood hurled three no-hit, no-run games. He was assisted in one game by Mike Sweeney and Tom Noteware.

During the season, and for the first time in the history of the school, the Eagles met an out-of-state opponent in the Shawnee, Oklahoma Wolves. This team ended up as one of the best in the state of Oklahoma. The Eagles defeated them through rain, cold and sand to the tune of 18 to 4.

Another advance during the year was the playing of night games although only two games were played, the Shawnee game and the second game with Rylie.

Individual players who led in the statistics are Mike Sweeney, Glen Blackwood and Pat Keith. Sweeney led the team in number of hits with 23 and most innings played with 112. Leading the pitchers was Glen Blackwood with a record of 12 wins and one loss. Pat Keith led the team in garnering 44 times on base. Those three boys were elected tri-captains by their teammates.

Turning in a good record of 8 wins and 3 losses was the "B" team coached by Mr. Dewey Green. They played a schedule of games including Thomas Jefferson, Jesuit, St. Marks, Garland, Carrollton and Highland Park. Boys participating in "B" team play were Dick Ramser, Tom Hartin, Victor Reavis, Joe Kenworthy, Buster Putnam, Joe Dreisbach, Bobby Wyatt, Ben Love, Dwight Maxwell, Mike Morris, Andy Rooker, Wayne Brown, Doug Adams.

BLAIR LEE

Our baseball team was cheered on to victory at a final pep rally.

Barbara Freeman, Linda Very and others help to yell a little louder.

From inside the building the "V's for Victory" were most impressive.

Although the weather was hot, the cheerleaders didn't let that interfere with enthusiasm.

This is what the cheerleader sees.

Below are just miscellaneous pictures.

Pam Morgan, Tommie Spencer and others relaxed when the Chorus went to Commerce to an all-day Music Festival.

Student teachers Miss Carolyn Medders, who aided Mrs. Martin; Miss Linda Watson, working with Mrs. Hallmark; Miss Leslie Moore, teaching under Mrs. Marshall; and Kenneth Christian, practice teaching under Miss Darnall, pause for a minute.

Did you know that recordings are made of the Golden Eagle Band?

Linda Very is waiting to commentate the Style Show given by the Homemaking Classes at a P.T.A. meeting.

Final Pep Rally, Senior Barge Party

Mighty Seniors cheer their Eagles to baseball victory in preparation for a game.

Full of vigor and pep, Charlotte Morgan, Senior cheerleader, cheers for her last time at her Alma Mater, RHS.

'Bye "Ralphie," all set for a barge party, food, and fun?

All those Seniors!

Sailor, Phyllis Byrd, informs the Captain on how to "drive" a boat.

When we first arrived at Lake Murray, even our sponsor, Mrs. Martin, was in a "dither" about what to do first.

After a busy day of swimming, horseback riding, and eating smorgasbord, Wade Campbell and Jimmy Love relax with a game of shuffleboard.

Oh, what a pity, Carla, the museum was closed after that long walk!

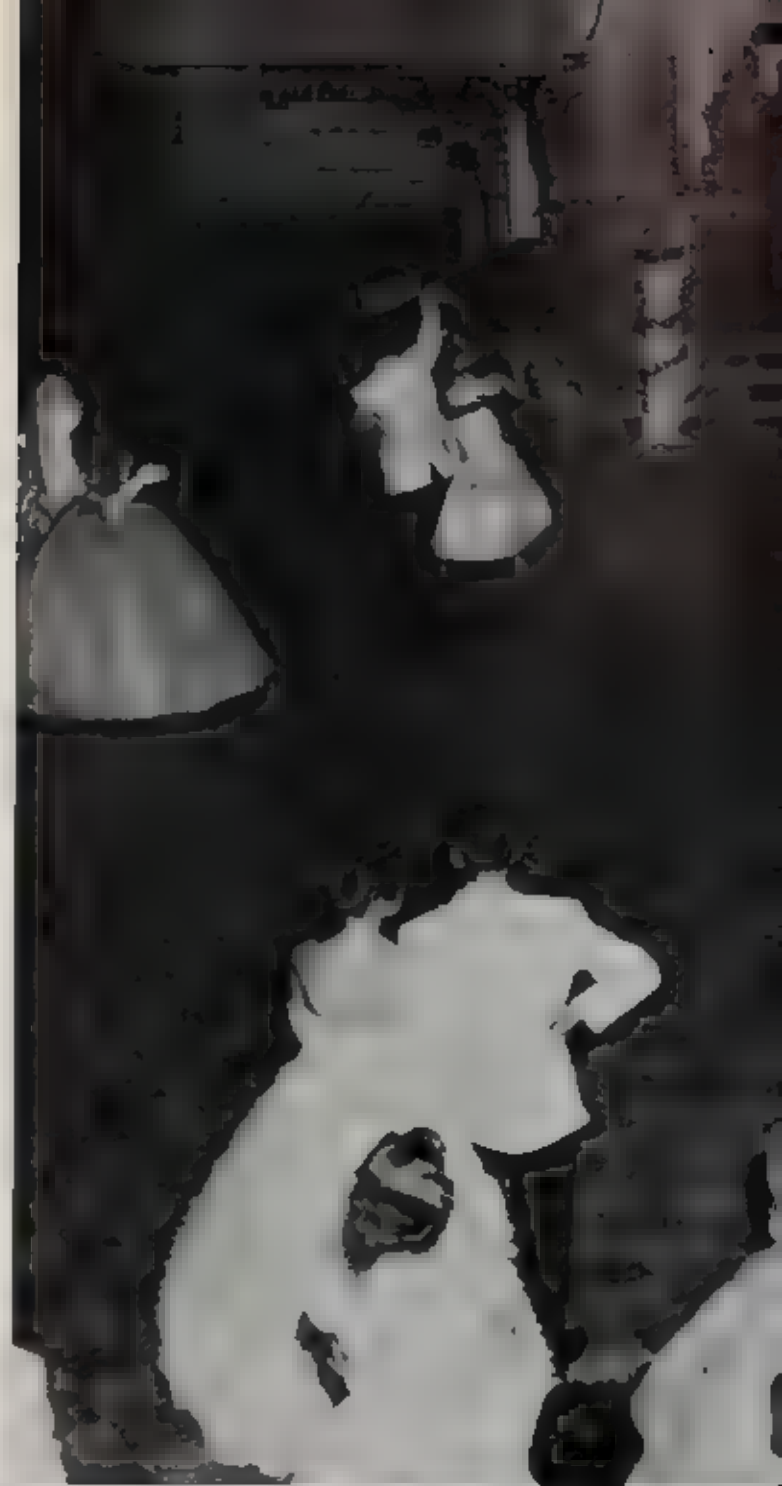

Junior-Senior Prom

Another first at RHS this year was the converting of the annual Junior-Senior Banquet to a Junior-Senior Prom.

The '59 Juniors really struggled to make the big night a success and it was.

The Prom was held in the ballroom of the S.M.U. Student Union Center on the night of Friday, May 15. A beautifully decorated room carried out the theme of the Old South.

After a short, but entertaining program, the Juniors, Seniors, and their dates enjoyed refreshments, and dancing.

"Good-bye"

Seniors Close High School Chapter

Graduating Seniors made their last formal appearance as the Class of 1959 on their red-letter day—May 28. Dressed in white caps and gowns for the commencement exercises, they remembered briefly the events that led to their graduation. Nine months of classes and exams suddenly seemed worth all the effort. As the '59ers received their diplomas, they changed the position of the tassels and turned the class rings around, as a symbol of graduation.

Seniors alone had the distinction of ordering invitations, holding club offices for the last year, raising money with a Sadie Hawkins party and a sweet sale and parking in front of the school building. Seniors turned actors for "My Little Oscar" and really let their hair down for the Beatnik assembly. Underclassmen laughed with the Seniors on Kids' Day and envied their day off—the Senior Trip to Lake Murray. It was the Seniors who glowed at the Junior-Senior Prom and grew solemn the afternoon of Baccalaureate services, now realizing that high school was almost over. Many Seniors wiped away a few tears as they turned in their caps and gowns after graduation, closing a chapter of what is now just history.
